Description:

Revisiting a visual mythology of the 1930's, Camille Fallet takes the same point of view, in the same place, to photograph and then print in black and white the same street scene entitled "Two Family Houses in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania" by Walker Evans.

Exhibitions:

"Walker Evans revisited", Biennial for actual Photographie, Mannheim, DE 2020, curator David Company

"Walker Evans revisited", Halmond Museum, NL 2021.
